

CALL FOR CONSULTANCY – EXPERT CONSULTANT
Training in Climate Change and Conflict Nexus

I. INTRODUCTION

Center for Conflict Resolution (CECORE) with financial support from ifa-zivik is implementing the “Youth Peace Champions – Phase II” project in selected post-conflict communities in Uganda. The project aims at preventing re-radicalisation -in a bid to prevent the targeted youth from sliding back into acts of violence. The project’s main target is youth (18-30 years) who have previously been involved in (armed) violence. It also supports youth groups who are engaged in peacebuilding. The project has two main interventions – peace building, and “Connectors for peace”.

In 2022, the project is being implemented in 4 selected districts – Kasese in South Western Uganda, Kaabong and Amudat in Karamoja region -North eastern Uganda, and Amuru in Northern Uganda. These youth become change agents in their communities, lead in transforming the attitudes of their peers in the community and are referred to as “Peace Champions”. The project is for a period of 9 months, April 1 – December 31, 2022. The project is funded by the Germany Government through ifa-zivik.

Some of the key activities under the 2022 project include: Baseline study, training in peace building and conflict transformation, skills training in “connectors for peace”/income generating activities, training in Trauma healing, and training in Climate change and conflict. Others include provision of supplementary materials for “connectors for peace” initiatives, community awareness raising and dialogues, mentoring and market linkages, and experience sharing meeting. In each of the districts, 3 selected groups are selected.
